

A Story of Courage & Peace

2012 City of Sydney Peace Prize Lecture

by brave and distinguished human rights campaigner and Co Minister for Reconciliation, Healing and Integration in the Cabinet of President Robert Mugabe and Prime Minister Morgan Tsvangirai

Senator Sekai Holland

with performances from

Cabramatta High's

Drumming for Justice Dancing for Peace

Wednesday 7 November
6:30pm (for 7pm start)
Sydney Town Hall, NSW
Tickets available through Ticketek $35/$25

Book at www.ticketek.com or call 132 849

Join us in celebrating Senator Holland's achievements and supporting a culture of peace.

Sekai Holland will speak of the significance of non violence, of democracy, and of the importance of dialogue to heal the wounds of appalling conflicts. Sekai acknowledges her work with hundreds of brave women including Australian Aboriginal campaigners for human rights. Her priorities include struggles for peace with justice in Zimbabwe, and for the empowerment of women around the world.

Sydney Peace Foundation

Enquiries: (02) 9531 4468

www.sydneypeacefoundation.org.au

